

Sydney Star Observer Wednesday 26/05/2010

Page: 18
Section: General News
Region: National, AU
Circulation: 20954
Type: Magazines Lifestyle
Size: 109.88 sq.cms.

slice slicemedia.com

press clip

GIRLS

CALLING COWGIRLS

Betty's Turn is on for another night of dress-up daggy dance, pop-tastic hits and requests for the ladies in the inner west. It's time to hoë down with Betty for another ranch spectacular. You should all know the drill by now: post your requests on their Facebook wall, dress up in your best Cow Polk or Dixie Chick kit for drinks on the night. They're visiting the Wild West this time with rodeo dress-up and bootscooting tracks to dig your spurs into. May 28, The Clarence Hotel, 9pm-2am.

COSMOS FOR A CAUSE

Life Changing Experiences Foundation is launching the inaugural Sisters In The City fundraising initiative, with two private screenings of the highly anticipated Sex And The City 2 movie at 5pm on Friday, June 4 at Randwick Ritz Cinema. Strut down the pink carpet where you'll receive a Nivea gift bag and a complimentary Cosmopolitan cocktail. All money from ticket sales will be donated to SISTER2sister, a 12-month mentoring program that matches successful women with at-risk teenage girls.

RUBY FOR LUCY

Sydney band Ruby for Lucy will launch their debut album, Catching Bream, at The Vanguard on June 2. The female duo's album has been described as having an "indie-folk fairytale vibe", and the pair have performed on many Sydney stages since first meeting three years ago. info: www.rubyforlucy.com

LEATHER FOR

LADIES

The Sydney Leather Pride Association has noticed a drop in the number of female members and events to cater for those members in recent years. In an effort to change this, SLPA will hold a special forum to consult with the women of the community at 4pm on Sunday, May 30. For more information, email women@sydneyleatherpride.org or visit www.sydneyleatherpride.org