Time traveller saves lives

A young woman from Cambewarra is about to launch her second book.

Amanda Cole (left) who wrote and self-published I Hate Cinderella in 2008, now has another book – You Are My Future.

It follows the story of Sierra Field who manages to do the impossible – split time.

Facing the heart-wrenching prospect of knowing the dramatic events that await her “present” self, the “present” persona of Sierra and the “future” persona must try to comprehend this unimaginable scenario – and work as one to save her brother’s life.

The novel poses the question: what would you do if you met a future version of yourself?

The book which incorporates the importance of knowing CPR has been endorsed by St John Ambulance Australia.

“After a friend tragically lost her child due to a drowning accident, I wanted to raise awareness of the importance of learning CPR,” said Ms Cole.

“I also began to take stock of how important my family and friends are – and how I would cope should I ever face such a tragedy.

As an ambassador for teenage mentoring program Sister2Sister program, Ms Cole will donate a percentage of all sales of You Are My Future to the program.

Sister2Sister offers support in the form of mentorship for teenage girls at risk of abuse and neglect, who are disadvantaged and disengaged.

The launch of the novel will take place on December 8 in Sydney.
